Summer Internships

PRIORITY AFRICA NETWORK:

When: June-August 2023

Priority Africa Network (PAN), an Oakland-based immigrants' rights and racial justice advocacy organization has two internship positions for the summer. PAN works to build Pan African solidarity and political mobilization in the Bay Area and globally. We are looking for dynamic student interns to learn about emerging trends in working on the nexus of immigrant and racial justice movement building. The position is looking for committed 20 hours a week for a stipend covering transport and meal expenses.

Interested candidates should send a short cover letter and resume to info@priorityafrica.org
